Open Hearing to Receive Stakeholder Input

WASHINGTON – The Commission on Evidence-Based Policymaking (CEP) will hold its second public hearing on January 5, 2017 in Chicago, IL. The public hearing will provide an opportunity for any interested stakeholder to present their views on issues relevant to the Commission’s charge established in Public Law 114-140. This is the second of three such hearings. A final hearing is planned for the West Coast region in February 2017.

The hearings provide participants the opportunity to submit a written statement for the record, as well as make brief oral statements to members of the Commission. Oral statements are limited to 5 minutes, and should highlight key aspects of the written submission. A limited number of speaking slots are allotted for the day, and will be filled on a first come, first served basis.

Parties wishing to participate should follow the below guidance:

- Submit your request to participate to Input@cep.gov no later than Sunday, December 18, 2016
- Include in your request the following information:
 - Name
 - Professional Affiliation (if applicable)
 - 2-3 Sentence Abstract
 - Written Statement (preferably in .pdf format)
- Commission staff will inform you of your assigned speaking time and logistical details no later than December 23, 2016. We cannot accommodate requests for specific timeslots.

Please note, you may submit a written statement without requesting a speaking slot by following the above guidance, and indicating in the subject line that you are not requesting to speak.

All submitted statements will become part of the Commission record, and included in publically available records.
